Daughters of Confederacy.

The meeting of the Richard Hawes Chapter, U. D. C., at the court house Saturday afternoon, was of much interest. It was presided over by the new president, Mrs. Russell Mann. She thanked the daughters for the interest manifested in the work mapped out for the coming year, and for the honor conferred upon her as presiding officer. Mrs. Thomas McDonald read a paper on the life of Mrs. Basil W. Duke, who recently passed away, which was followed by the reading by Mrs. C. C. Leer of a letter from General Duke thanking Richard Hawes Chapter for the kindly and touching sentiment expressed in the resolutions adopted upon the occasion of his wife's death.

Mrs. Kate Edgar followed with a paper containing a number of incidents of the war which were both thrilling and interesting.

Delightful refreshments were served, the hostesses being Mrs. C. F. Didlake and Mrs. R. B. Hutcraft. The birthday anniversary of Gen. Robert E. Lee, which will be on January 19, will be appropriately observed by the chapter, the address being delivered by Prof. A. N. Cordon, of Lexington.
